

SEEK BELIEVE ACHIEVE

RSF

SUPPORT YOUTH THROUGH WORKPLACE GIVING

PARTNER WITH THE REGGIE STEPHENS FOUNDATION TO EMPOWER THE NEXT GENERATION

ABOUT THE REGGIE STEPHENS FOUNDATION

The Reggie Stephens Foundation (RSF) is a Santa Cruz County-based nonprofit dedicated to empowering youth through sports, arts, education, and culture. Our programs build confidence, leadership, and opportunity for young people across our community. Serving 500+ youth annually and growing.

WHY WORKPLACE GIVING MATTERS

- Supports local youth programs
- Engages employees in giving
- Aligns with company values
- May include employer matching
- Easy to implement and manage
- Creates meaningful local impact

WORKPLACE GIVING MADE EASY

RSF is registered with Benevity, a leading platform used by many employers to support employee giving and matching programs.

Through Benevity, employees can:

- Give through payroll or one-time donations
- Access employer matching opportunities
- Support RSF through their workplace giving portal

Matching gifts may double or even triple employee impact.

SCAN TO ACCESS YOUR WORKPLACE GIVING PORTAL
causes.benevity.org/user

LEARN MORE ABOUT OUR IMPACT

REGGIESTEPHENS.ORG

PROGRAMS SUPPORTED BY WORKPLACE GIVING

Employee giving helps fund RSF programs that empower youth through sports, arts, education, and culture, including:

- Girls Flag Football All-Star Game
- RSF x Morgan State University partnership
- Youth scholarships
- Leadership development
- Basketball and 7v7 football programs
- Sunday Sessions youth training
- Arts and cultural enrichment
- Community youth internship programs